

First announcement

First KOOK Seminar International

for

Knot Theory and Related Topics

July 8-14, 2004

Awaji Yumebutai

(International Conference Center in Awaji-Shima Island, Japan)

<http://www.yumebutai.org>

The sponsor is the 21st century COE program "Constitution for wide-angle mathematical basis focused on knots". This conference is an international version of KOOK Seminar organized by members in Kobe University, Osaka City University, Osaka University, Kwansai Gakuin University and Nara Women's University for more than twenty years. The aim of this conference is to promote academic challenges, cooperations, exchanges and understandings on the research area of knot theory and related topics.

Participants include:

- Martin Bridson(England)
- Danny Calegari(USA)
- J. Scott Carter(USA)
- David Gabai(USA)
- Cameron Gordon(USA)
- Seong Bok Hong(Korea)
- Boju Jiang(China)
- Mattia Mecchia(Italy)
- Mario Eudave-Munoz(Mexico)
- J. Hyam Rubinstein(Australia)
- Masahico Saito(USA)
- Daniel Silver(USA)
- Susan Williams(USA)
- Bruno Zimmermann(Italy)

Organizers: T. Kanenobu, A. Kawachi, Y. Nakanishi, Y. Rieck, M. Sakuma

The information desk: Yuko Komori (the secretary)

Osaka City University Advanced Mathematical Institute
(y-komori@sci.osaka-cu.ac.jp, phone 06-6605-2626)